TROUBADOUR TALES

July 15, 2014 London, ON and Toronto, ON -- "Kenny Butterill is a gentle, country and blues songwriter-producer molded from the same elements as J.J. Cale... he's original, sensitive, perceptive, warm and above all memorable ... he's got the stuff," said Barry Hammond of Penguin Eggs, Canada's leading folk, roots and world music publication.

On Saturday August 16th 2014 Butterill will be at the London Music Club in London, ON for an 8:30 p.m. concert. On Monday August 18th, 2014, he will perform at The Old Nick in Toronto, ON starting at 9:00 p.m.

Butterill will be back home in Ontario for a few shows with special guests Seb Agnello and Peter Verity, after touring Northern California in July to support the release of his new CD "Troubadour Tales". Ten years in the making, the "Troubadour Tales" CD was recorded in eight studios, has over twenty world class guests, including Donovan and is getting rave reviews.

Sometimes compared to JJ Cale, Gordon Lightfoot and John Prine, Butterill's rustic, minimalist music is richly textured but never over-produced. It has a warm ambience with an up-close personal vibe and a cool feel and groove.

At these "Troubadour Tales Tour" shows, concert goers will be able to purchase copies of Kenny's new "Troubadour Tales" CD. "There is a time in every artist's career when they are at the top of their game. For Kenny Butterill that time is now!" says Brent Jeffries, freelance writer for The Sun Times, Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada where Butterill performed last year. Don't miss an intimate evening with Kenny Butterill.
